

Faith

28 de agosto de 2024

“Faith” (fe) you may know, the context being religion.

There are other uses: examine what follows.

- A mortal can have faith in (...fe en) a person. This is similar to trust or confidence (confianza). For example, some people have faith in Mr. Sanchez, the Spanish Prime Minister. Note the collocation: faith in.
- Mortals voted for Mr. Sanchez in good faith (...de buena fe):
- There is a phrase: a leap of faith. Voting for Mr. Sanchez required a leap of faith
- (... requirió fe ciega). “To leap” also means saltar.
- Mr. Sanchez has acted in bad faith (...ha actuado de mala fe).
- People have faith in Caixa bank (...tiene la fe en...)

In whom (con quien...) do you have faith)? Or are you faithless (infidente)?
