“Cricket” (críquet) you may know. It is an English game, and the players are called cricketers.

It is also a small animal (grillo) and crickets often chirp (chirría).

There is also an important English expresión: that is not cricket (eso no es jugar limpio, o es una jugada sucia).

It is an expression that means someone’s conduct is against the rules, or someone is not doing things according to the commonly accepted conventions.
