

Is your house listed?

29 de junio de 2021

“List” (lista) you know. It is also a verb and the verb collocation is to “make a list”, “prepare a list”, or “write a list”.

“Listed” is the past participle. An example: Mr. Casado, the Popular Party leader, listed all the mistakes made by PSOE.

Here the focus is on the adjective “listed”.

Examine these:

- Mr. Morales lives in a listed house (una casa protegida).
- Mr. Podemos owns shares (acciones) in a “listed company” (empresa cotizada).
- He owns a lot of “listed securities” (valores registrados en bolsa).

So do you live in a listed building and own shares in a listed company?
